Building: CES

Month/Year: November 2011

1. Awards and/or recognition of students and staff:

- Congratulations to all students that had Perfect Attendance or were on the Honor Roll the first nine-week grading period (see attached lists)
- Congratulations to the Good Discipline award winners for the first nine-week grading period: Hannah Felts K, Lacy Lockhart 1st, Matthew Mogan 2nd, Nathaniel Copeland 3rd, Trey Reed 4th, and Ally Smith 5th. Thanks to the PTC for providing $10 Wal-Mart gift cards for each winner.
- Red Ribbon Week activities were held the week of October 24th – 31st. Thanks Mrs. Ramey for coordinating the activities.
- Halloween parties were held on Oct. 27th and 28th.
- The PTC Halloween Carnival was another huge success in raising over $3300 for the students and teachers of Clay Elementary School. Thanks to Jill Marshall, Jill Hauth, Kim Hobbs, and Melanie Gilliland (PTC officers), parent volunteers, and teachers that worked, planned, and organized the carnival. Also, thanks to businesses and patrons that donated items.
- Report cards went home on Nov. 4th
- A K-12 Veteran's Day Assembly was held on Nov. 11th in our new gym. Thanks to Mr. Warnock for organizing it, Mrs. Sherman's chorus singing songs, and Miss Maggard's band playing songs. A special thanks to Lila Brown and Skylar Artis for leading the school in the Pledge of Allegiance, Karleigh Murnahan singing the Star Spangled Banner, Eli Kelley for Veteran's Day meaning recital, Bryan and Braydan Dotson for the American Flag folding demonstration.
- Nov. 16th CES was picture retake day
- Nov. 1st – Nov. 16th CES participated in "America Recycles Day" contest against many Scioto County schools sponsored by Lawrence-Scioto

County Solid Waste Management District. Our elementary students collected and donated aluminum cans (135 lbs) for this recycling contest.
